

World AIDS Day 2010

Wednesday, December 1, 2010

Portrayals of a Pandemic: Screening of HIV/AIDS Films

Student Union Building

9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Films focusing on different aspects of the U.S. and global HIV/AIDS crisis will run throughout the day.

Thursday, December 2, 2010

➤ Come early to check out the resource tables and freebies at the Swenson Center!

➤ Bring non-perishable food items for AIDS Project Ventura County's Necessities of Life Food Pantry.

Keynote Event: Speaker and Panel

Swenson 101-102

2-4 p.m.

John Prichard, M.D., Director of Ventura County's Immunology Clinic: Dr. Prichard will discuss prevention and care with a focus on access to HIV and AIDS services in Ventura County.

Positively Speaking — Local Voices of HIV/AIDS: Ventura county residents will share experiences and answer questions about living with HIV/AIDS.

Stereotypes, Myths and Stigma: an Interactive Experience

Swenson 101-102

4:15-5:15 p.m.

Join us for an engaging event designed by CLU's Sexuality and Society service-learning students.

Keeping the Faith: Candlelight Vigil

Swenson Center Patio

5:30 p.m.

Hear poetry and music; offer words of prayer, hope and remembrance: organized by CLU's Office of University Ministries. 2010 Featured Poet: Jackson Wheeler. 2010 Student Poets: Matt Soto & Stephanie Saindon.

Events are free, open to the public and will be held at California Lutheran University's Thousand Oaks campus.

For more information, please contact Amanda Whealon: 805-493-3950; awhealo@callutheran.edu

Financial Sponsors: CLU Center for Equality & Justice and CLU Wellness Initiatives

Special thanks to the HIV/AIDS Coalition of Ventura County: including Ventura County Public Health, Ventura County Rainbow Alliance, Quality Advisory Committee, Planned Parenthood, and Ventura County AIDS Partnership